Top Tapestry Segments:

Home Town

These low-density, settled neighborhoods, located chiefly in the Midwest and South, rarely change. Home Town residents stay close to their home base. Although they may move from one house to another, they rarely cross the county line. Household types are a mix of singles and families. The median age is 34.0 years. Single-family homes predominate in this market. Homeownership is at 59 percent, and the median home value is $66,885. The manufacturing, retail trade, and service industries are the primary sources of employment. Residents enjoy fishing and playing baseball, bingo, backgammon, and video games. Favorite cable TV stations include CMT, Nick-at-Nite, Game Show Network, and TV Land. Belk and Wal-Mart are favorite shopping destinations stops; residents also purchase items from Avon sales representatives.

Heartland Communities

Heartland Communities neighborhoods are preferred by approximately six million people. These neighborhoods can be found primarily in small towns in the Midwest and South. More than 75 percent of the households are single-family dwellings with a median home value of $82,080. Most homes are older, built before 1960. The median age is 42.0 years; nearly one-third of the householders are aged 65 years or older. The distinctly country lifestyle of these residents is reflected in their interest in hunting, fishing, woodworking, playing bingo, and listening to country music. In addition to working on home improvement projects, they are avid gardeners and read gardening magazines. They participate in civic activities and take an interest in local politics. Residents order items from catalogs, QVC, and Avon sales representatives.

Prairie Living

Agriculture plays an important part of the Prairie Living economy; small, family-owned farms dominate this stable market located mainly in the Midwest. Two-thirds of the households are married-couple families; the median age is 41.3 years. Homeownership is at 80 percent; the median home value is $106,220. Although single-family dwellings are characteristic of these communities, 11 percent of the households live in mobile homes. More than a third of the housing units were built before 1940. These residents are big country music fans and enjoy hunting, fishing, target shooting, and horseback riding. They work on their vegetable gardens, vehicles, and home projects. Many are members of church boards or civic clubs and get involved in civic issues. Because cable TV can be unavailable in these rural areas, many households have a satellite dish. Families with pet cats or dogs are common.

Midlife Junction

Midlife Junction communities are found in suburbs across the country. Residents are phasing out of their child-rearing years. Approximately half of the households are composed of married-couple families; 31 percent are singles who live alone. The median age is 41.2 years; the median household income is $49,031. One-third of the households receive Social Security benefits. Nearly two-thirds of the households are single-family structures; most of the remaining dwellings are apartments in multiunit buildings. These residents live quiet, settled lives. They spend their money prudently and do not succumb to fads. They prefer to shop by mail or phone from catalogs such as J.C. Penney, L.L. Bean, and Lands' End. They enjoy yoga, attending country music concerts and auto races, refinishing furniture, and reading romance novels.

Rooted Rural

Rooted Rural neighborhoods are located in rural areas throughout the country; however, more than three-fifths of the households are located in the South. Households are dominated by married-couple families. One-third of the households receive Social Security benefits. The median age is 42.2 years. Housing is predominantly single-family dwellings, with a strong presence of mobile homes and some seasonal housing. The median home value is $101,198. Stable and settled, residents tend to move infrequently. They are do-it-yourselfers, constantly working on their homes, gardens, and vehicles. Many families have pets. Residents enjoy hunting, fishing, target shooting, boating, attending country music concerts, and listening to country music on the radio. Many households have a satellite dish; favorite stations include Outdoor Life Network and CMT.

Prosperous Empty Nesters

Prosperous Empty Nesters neighborhoods are well established, located throughout the United States; approximately one-third are on the eastern seaboard. The median age is 48.7 years. More than half of the householders are aged 55 or older. Forty percent of household types are married couples with no children living at home. Educated and experienced, residents are enjoying the life stage transition from child rearing to retirement. The median household income is $70,623. Residents place a high value on their physical and financial well-being and take an active interest in their homes and communities. They travel extensively, both at home and abroad. Leisure activities include refinishing furniture, playing golf, attending sports events, and reading mysteries. Civic participation includes joining civic clubs, engaging in fund-raising, and working as volunteers.

Rustbelt Traditions

Rustbelt Traditions neighborhoods are the backbone of older, industrial cities in states bordering the Great Lakes. Most employed residents work in the service, manufacturing, and retail trade industries. Most residents own and live in modest single-family homes that have a median value of $102,391. Households are primarily a mix of married-couple families, single-parent families, and singles who live alone. The median age is 36.1 years; the median household income is $51,436. Residents prefer to use a credit union and invest in certificates of deposit. They use coupons regularly, especially at Sam's Club, work on home remodeling or improvement projects, and buy domestic vehicles. Favorite leisure activities include hunting, bowling, fishing, and attending auto races, country music shows, and ice hockey games (in addition to listening to games on the radio).

Rustbelt Retirees

Most Rustbelt Retirees neighborhoods can be found in older, industrial cities in the Northeast and Midwest, especially in Pennsylvania and other states surrounding the Great Lakes. Households are mainly occupied by married couples with no children and singles who live alone. The median age is 45 years. Although many residents are still working, labor force participation is below average. More than 40 percent of the households receive Social Security benefits. Most residents live in owned, single-family homes, with a median value of $129,157. Unlike many retirees, these residents are not inclined to move. They are proud of their homes and gardens and participate in community activities. Some are members of veterans' clubs. Leisure activities include playing bingo, gambling in Atlantic City, going to the horse races, working crossword puzzles, and playing golf.

Salt of the Earth

A rural or small-town lifestyle best describes the Salt of the Earth market. The median age is 41.4 years. Labor force participation is higher than the U.S. level, and unemployment is lower. Above-average numbers of employed residents work in the manufacturing, construction, mining, and agricultural industries. The median household income is $50,913. Households are dominated by married-couple families who live in single-family dwellings, with homeownership at 85 percent. Twenty-eight percent of the households own three or more vehicles. Most homes own a truck; many own a motorcycle. Residents are settled, hardworking, and self-reliant, taking on small home projects as well as vehicle maintenance. Families often own two or more pets, usually dogs or cats. Residents enjoy fishing, hunting, target shooting, attending country music concerts and auto races, and flying kites.

Green Acres

A 'little bit country', Green Acres residents live in pastoral settings of developing suburban fringe areas, mainly in the Midwest and South. The median age is 40.7 years. Married couples with and without children comprise most of the households, which are primarily in single-family dwellings. This upscale market has a median household income of $65,074 and a median home value of $197,519. These do-it-yourselfers maintain and remodel their homes, painting, installing carpet, or adding a deck, and own all the necessary tools to accomplish these tasks. They also take care of their lawn and gardens, again, with the right tools. Vehicles of choice are motorcycles and full-sized pickup trucks. For exercise, residents ride their bikes and go water skiing, canoeing, and kayaking. Other activities include bird-watching, power boating, target shooting, hunting, and attending auto races.
